Our Story

How our journey began...

In 1975, brothers Peter and John Shipperley co-founded and formed their very own official decorating business. Their inspired approach culminated in the opening of PeterJohn's first showroom, located in Bicester.

After continuing to trade for an impressive 41 years, John decided to retire. Over time, PeterJohn's services and product range have only expanded and improved.

- 2 Our talented consultants begin by carefully analysing each individual element of your space. They will work closely with you to understand your desires and bring your vision to life.
